EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An Examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to the Applicants, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this Examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Thomas Scherer on July 3, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

- In independent claim 20, at the end of line 3 – line 4, the claimed, "...wherein the working buffer is reserved only for incoming subtitle data", should be amended to read -- wherein the working buffer is initially reserved only for incoming subtitle data--.
- In independent claim 32, at the end of line 4 – line 5, the claimed, "...wherein the working buffer is reserved only for incoming subtitle data", should be amended to read -- wherein the working buffer is initially reserved only for incoming subtitle data--.

3. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 20-26, 28-39 and 41-43 (renumbered as claims 1-22) are allowed.

Regarding amended independent claims 20 and 32, the prior art, alone or in combination, does not teach or properly disclose a method and apparatus for processing video data in a receiver/decoder comprising designating a first buffer sub-area as a display buffer; designating a second buffer sub-area as a working buffer, wherein the working buffer is initially reserved only for incoming subtitle data...as well as including all the remaining limitations as explicitly recited in the claims.

As to the most pertinent prior art of record, the Urbanus et al patent (US 5,519,450) discloses a method and apparatus for processing video data in a receiver/decoder (See Fig. 1, Frame buffer 14 and col. 2, line 35 – col. 3, line 26). However, the Urbanus et al patent does not teach or suggest that the working buffer is initially reserved for incoming subtitle data only. In the Applicants' invention, the method and apparatus as described above is specifically disclosed in the limitations as explicitly recited in the amended claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
